Saturday, September 12, 2015 • 9am – 12pm

Location: Briscoe Library Classroom LIB 2.042

Dyslexia: I Can See Clearly Now!

The school year is getting ready to start! Time to prepare for your new students: new names, new faces, new challenges. Join us as Tracy Brown, a dyslexia instructor from Judson ISD, shares how to effectively work with students diagnosed with dyslexia. She will share how the dyslexic brain processes information and how teachers can best support dyslexic students. Join us for this timely and highly informative workshop!

*Internet access is available, so bring along your computer!

Join your fellow VBTA members at the UTHSCSA campus for this FREE C3 Workshop while earning 3 CPEs!

We provide the coffee and breakfast... ...you provide the conversation!

Register @ VBTAteachers.org
The meeting is in the Briscoe Library in room LIB 2.042. Park in Lot 2, in front of the Briscoe Library. You may park in ANY spot that does not have a “HSC Permit Required” sign. You can park in the spots that have “Reserved” painted on the pavement.

Enter the building through the Briscoe Library foyer. Slightly to the right, across the foyer will be the stairs down to the second floor. If you need elevator access, turn right inside the foyer. The elevator is on the right, past the Starbucks.

From stairs: At the bottom of the stairs, turn left at the lockers and follow the signage/room number signs.

From elevator: Turn to the left when exiting the elevator and follow the signage/room number signs.